

planners . advisors . partners

March 28, 2008 VIA EMAIL

I just returned a few hours ago from a trip to Tokyo with my son, Jerry to see the Red Sox so forgive me if I nod off while I am writing this note. Just last week we learned that I was the high bidder for a trip for two to Tokyo with all proceeds benefiting Curt's (Curt Shilling) pitch for ALS, both Jerry and I had the time of our lives and I look forward to sharing some of the memorabilia with you in the office.

Scholarship Deadline is Approaching;

There are just a few days remaining for your child, grandchild or great grandchild to submit their application for our $1,000 scholarship. Typically applications all arrive on the last few days, but with a deadline of March 31st only two have been received thus far (we usually receive between 8 - 11). Please call Lisa ASAP if you need an application or visit the website at www.freedmanfinancial.com.

Can Social Security be Fixed?

There is still space available for you, and your guests to attend our special seminar on Social Security. All attendees will receive a copy of the book, "The Social Security Fix-it Book" written by, Alicea Munnell, Director for the Center for Retirement Research at Boston University.

Tuesday evening, April 8 from 7:00 - 8:30pm.

Peabody Marriott Hotel, Centennial Drive

Refreshments will be served.

Please e-mail to lisa.drown@lpl.com if you'd like to join us for this meeting.

Well, I managed to stay awake long enough to write the e-mail, I think I'll head off for a brief nap (Japan time is 13 hours ahead of us).

Oya Suminasaya, (Good Night)

Marc